

Table of Content

Introduction	9
 I Human Rights and the Challenge of Globalisation
Human Rights Education: Global Initiatives at the United Nations Elena Ippoliti	11
The UN Decade for Human Rights Education 1995-2004 and its Contribution to the Furtherance of the Rights of National Minorities in Europe Claudia Mahler/ Anja Mihr/ Reetta Toivanen	19
Human Rights Advocacy and the Academy Paul Martin	41
 II Human Rights Education versus Education for Democratic Citizenship and Political Education
Human Rights Education and Education for Democratic Citizenship: Competing or Complimentary Agendas? Audrey Osler	55
Turning Walls into Doors: Challenges and Opportunities for Human Rights Education Carolyn Kissane	67
Education and Human Rights Kind Intentions and Brutal Realities Sia Sipilopoulou Åkermark	77
The State, Politics and Human Rights Education During the UN-Decade for Human Rights Education – The Case of Spain and Armenia Anja Mihr	87

III Teaching Human Rights in Different Political and Cultural Contexts

Educating Citizens for Democracy -Changes in the Estonian Education System	103
Sulev Valdmaa

Democratic Reforms and Human Rights Education: Are the Education Reforms directed to shape New Democratic Political Culture in Armenia?	119
Theresa Khorozyan

Sustainability of Human Rights and Minority Education	133
Reetta Toivanen

IV Minorities and Human Rights Education

Human Rights Law as a Paradigm for the Protection and Advancement of Minority Education in Europe	155
Theodore S. Orlin

Human Rights Education and Roma in Slovakia	171
Inken Stern/ Jana Luptáková

Is Human Rights Education a Means of Supporting Minorities?	187
Claudia Mahler

List of Authors	203
------------------------	------------