

Contents

Introduction	7
Gerhard Simon
After the Orange Revolution: the Rocky Road to Democracy	13
Ingmar Bredies
The 2004 Constitutional Reform: Origins, Driving Forces and Consequences	27
Dieter Segert
Political Parties in Ukraine since the Orange Revolution	45
Walter Rechberger
Judicial Independence in Ukraine	61
Åse Berit Grødeland
Cultural Constants, Corruption and the Orange Revolution	79
Heiko Pleines
The Political Role of the Oligarchs	103
Martin Schauer/Anna Lawrenjuk
Ukrainian Company Law between Modernisation and Post-Soviet Tradition – The Joint Stock Company as an Example	121
Bettina Haidinger
Social Policy and Poverty Alleviation in Ukraine from a Gender Perspective	141
Kerstin Zimmer
The Role of Ukraine within the European Migration System	159
Susan Stewart
NGO Development in Ukraine since the Orange Revolution	177
	5

Juliane Besters-Dilger Ukrainian Media Policies on the Way to Europe _____	195
Andreas Kappeler The Politics of History in Contemporary Ukraine: Russia, Poland, Austria, and Europe _____	217
Martin Malek The “Western Dimension” of the Foreign and Security Policy of Ukraine since 2005 with Special Consideration of the “Russian Factor” _____	233
Lina Klymenko What Holds Ukraine and Poland Together? On External and Internal Factors of Ukrainian-Polish Relations _____	253
Alois Woldan Culture Dimensions in Ukraine _____	275
Renate Pillinger Ukraine’s Approach to the Preservation of its Ancient and Religious In- heritance _____	295
Igor Gordiyi The Ukrainian Churches and the Europeanisation of Ukraine _____	309
Authors _____	329