

Table of contents

Figures and tables	XV
Acronyms.....	XIX
1 INTRODUCTION.....	1
2 THEORETICAL APPROACHES TO STATE FUNCTIONS AND PEACE	7
2.1 State functions and fragile statehood.....	7
2.1.1 Defining the “state”	9
2.1.2 Defining the “fragile state”.....	11
2.1.3 Core functions of the state according to Ulrich Schneckener	14
2.1.3.1 Security	15
2.1.3.2 Welfare.....	16
2.1.3.3 Legitimacy/rule of law	17
2.1.4 International actors and the process of state-building and peace-building	18
2.1.4.1 International state-building strategies: risks and side effects.....	19
2.1.4.2 Unintended consequences of international intervention.....	24
2.1.4.3 Principles for international engagement in fragile states and situations	27
2.2 Basic elements of peace theory according to Johan Galtung	30
2.2.1 Definition and types of violence.....	31
2.2.1.1 Direct violence	32
2.2.1.2 Structural violence	33
2.2.1.3 Cultural violence.....	33
2.2.2 Defining peace.....	35
2.2.2.1 Negative and positive peace	35
2.3 Assimilating Schneckener and Galtung’s theories: Specification of research questions and hypotheses	37
3 KOSOVO	41
3.1 Geographic and demographic characteristics.....	42

3.2 Key historical events.....	47
3.2.1 The Serbian–Albanian dispute over Kosovo.....	53
3.2.2 The war in Kosovo	56
3.2.3 Kosovo under UN administration.....	58
3.2.4 The way to independence	61
3.2.5 The EU in Kosovo	62
3.3 Kosovo’s economy	64
3.3.1 Economic development	66
3.3.2 Conclusion	81
3.4 The political system of Kosovo	82
3.4.1 The parliamentary system.....	83
3.4.1.1 Kosovo Albanian political parties.....	84
3.4.1.2 Kosovo Serb political parties	87
3.4.1.3 Radical parties.....	89
3.4.1.4 Recent elections and results	91
3.4.2 Non-parliamentary groups.....	93
3.4.2.1 Non-state armed groups	94
3.4.2.2 Non-state political movements	101
3.4.3 Conclusion	103
4 THE FUNCTION OF SECURITY IN RELATION TO PEACE.....	105
4.1 Security situation in Kosovo.....	105
4.1.1 Personal perceptions of security	107
4.1.2 Interethnic relations	108
4.2 Factors threatening Kosovo’s stability	113
4.2.1 Crime and corruption.....	114
4.2.2 Rule of law.....	129
4.2.3 Political and religious extremism	135
4.3 International and national security providers	141
4.3.1 Kosovo Force (KFOR)	142
4.3.2 UNMIK Police.....	151
4.3.3 EULEX	161

4.3.4 Kosovo Police.....	172
4.4 Conclusion	176
5 THE FUNCTION OF WELFARE IN RELATION TO PEACE.....	179
5.1 Unemployment and poverty	180
5.1.1 The social protection system	188
5.1.1.1 The pension system.....	189
5.1.1.2 The social assistance scheme.....	194
5.1.1.3 Employment programs.....	195
5.1.1.4 Impact of the social protection system on poverty	197
5.1.2 Migration and remittances as ways out of poverty.....	198
5.1.2.1 Socio-economic profile of the Kosovo diaspora	198
5.1.2.2 Disadvantages of the diaspora and remittances	201
5.1.2.3 Impact of remittances on poverty	201
5.1.2.4 Active migration policies toward the EU labor market.....	204
5.2 Education	206
5.2.1 The Kosovo education system.....	206
5.2.2 Indicators of educational outcomes.....	209
5.2.3 Weaknesses of the Kosovo education system and its reforms.....	214
5.2.3.1 Pre-university education	215
5.2.3.2 Higher education	219
5.2.4 Investing in education.....	222
5.3 Health.....	225
5.3.1 Indicators of health outcomes.....	225
5.3.2 Weaknesses of the Kosovo health system and its reforms.....	229
5.3.3 Investing in health	232
5.4 Youth bulge	234
5.5 Gender inequality in Kosovo.....	238
5.5.1 The role of women – a complex of tradition and emancipation.....	238
5.5.2 Failures in promoting gender equality.....	240
5.5.3 Success in promoting gender equality	242
5.5.3.1 Women in civic life.....	242

5.5.4 Violence against women.....	244
5.6 Conclusion	247
6 CONCLUSION	249
6.1 Security	249
6.1.1 Control over the integrity of national territory	249
6.1.2 Control of external borders.....	249
6.1.3 Ethnic and other violent conflicts.....	250
6.1.4 Condition of the state's security apparatus.....	250
6.1.5 Crime and development of crime rates.....	251
6.1.6 Corruption.....	251
6.1.7 Rule of law.....	251
6.2 Welfare.....	252
6.2.1 Economic situation	252
6.2.2 Unemployment	252
6.2.3 Equal access to economic resources.....	253
6.2.4 Poverty and the urban–rural divide	253
6.2.5 Inequalities in human development.....	254
6.2.6 Public social protection systems.....	254
6.2.7 Educational system	255
6.2.8 Healthcare system.....	255
6.2.9 Public infrastructure	256
6.2.10 Environment	256
6.3 Concluding assessment.....	257
6.4 The Kosovo case in the context of other state-building missions	258
7 ABSTRACTS	269
7.1 English abstract.....	269
7.2 German abstract	270
8 APPENDIX	271
8.1 Kosovo municipalities	271
8.2 Registered political parties in Kosovo as of 2009	272

8.3 UNMIK mission expenditures, June 1999–June 2011	274
8.4 KFOR troop contributing countries, 2010	275
8.5 Austrian Army expenditure on KFOR, 1999–2010	276
8.6 Composition and strength of the UNMIK Civilian Police, 1999–2008.....	277
8.7 Composition and strength of the UNMIK Special Police, 2000–08.....	280
8.8 Composition and strength of the UNMIK Military Liaison component, 1999–2009	281
9 BIBLIOGRAPHY	283
9.1 Literature.....	283
9.2 Interviews	307
9.2.1 Interviews with international representatives.....	307
9.2.2 Interviews with Kosovars	309