

Contents

Eun-Jeung Lee and Hannes B. Mosler

Introduction .....7

Chapter 1 – Challenges

Walter Reese-Schäfer

Civil Society and Political Theory.....15

Hyo-Je Cho

Voyage through Uncharted Waters: Challenges for Korean Civil Society in Times of Turbulent Democracy .....31

George Katsiaficas

A Global Perspective on 1968 .....57

Chapter 2 – Functions

Jin-Wook Shin

Ideological Conflict in Civil Society and Korean Democracy in Trouble .....73

Dieter Segert

Weak civil societies – either a legacy of state socialism or as produced by the transition stress? East Central Europe after 1989 in comparison .....93

Il-Pyo Hong

The Pressure of “Dual De-institutionalization” and the Institutionalized Response of Social Movements in Korea.....105

Chapter 3 – Implications

Klaus Meschkat

Students as agents of democratization in German society:
1968 and the revival of the concept of Council Democracy.....129

|                                                    |     |
|----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Axel Rüdiger                                       |     |
| 1968 and its Consequences in the GDR – Looking for |     |
| Traces in the Cultural Field .....                 | 137 |
| Yun Tae Kim                                        |     |
| The Social Impacts of Student                      |     |
| Movement in Korea .....                            | 151 |