

Contents

The transformative power of the European Union: An introduction	7
Ireneusz P. Karolewski/Monika Sus

Part One: The EU's transformative power towards Poland's legal and political system	19
--	----

Chapter 1: The European transformation of the legislative, executive and judicial power in Poland	21
Robert Grzeszczak

Chapter 2: European Union activity in the field of civil law and its impact on Polish national contract law	36
Ewa Wójtowicz

Chapter 3: Interest representation in Poland after EU accession: More regulated, professional and legitimate?	54
Agnieszka K. Cianciara

Chapter 4: The impact of EU membership on Polish political parties	78
Anna Paczeński

Part Two: Case studies of the EU's transformative power	109
--	-----

Chapter 5: The transformation of EU governance, identity making and the counterterrorism policies of the EU	111
Ireneusz P. Karolewski

Chapter 6: The Polish renewable energy and climate policies under the impact of the EU	137
Andrzej Ceglarz/Andrzej Ancygier

Contents

Chapter 7: Polish foreign policy after 2004: How European is it really? The case of the Eastern dimension of the ENP	169
Monika Sus
Chapter 8: Functionalism and transformation potential of the European Union. The case of Eastern Partnership	189
Stanisław Konopacki
Chapter 9: The neofunctional transformation in the Polish borderland?	205
Anna Bachmann
Chapter 10: Gender equality policy after the Polish accession to the EU: Transformation or obstinacy?	230
Jolanta Maj
Notes on Contributors	251